Charles J. Lundberg

Charles Joseph Lundberg was born in Union County, near Alcester, S. D., on May 27, 1886. His parents were Peter and Mathilda Lundberg, both of whom were immigrants from Sweden. He was one of a family of eight brothers and one sister, only one of whom survives, David Lundberg of Alcester, S. D.

In 1915 he graduated from Huron College and taught school in Elkton and later acted as Superintendent of Schools at Lemmon, S. D.

He took work at the University of Chicago Law School and was admitted to the bar in 1920 and thereafter practiced law at Groton, S. D. He served in the 1945 and 1947 Sessions of the South Dakota Legislature as a representative from Brown County.

In 1920 he married Hazle M. Knight of Aberdeen, S. D., their home being established in Groton. Five sons were born to this union, two having died at birth. Surviving Mr. Lundberg are his wife, three sons, Harold A. of North Easton, Mass.; Calvin E. of Minneapolis and Ralph J. of La Mesa, California, six grandchildren, one brother, three step sisters, one step brother and many nieces and nephews.

Mr. Lundberg has been in ill health since early December and passed away at his home on January 21, 1962. The funeral service will be at 2:00 p. m., in the Presbyterian church in Groton, Thursday, Jan. 25. Rev. Robert Carey, local pastor and Rev. C. B. Cedar of Pollock will be the officiating clergymen. Interment will be in the Groton Union Cemetery. Paetznick Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
